MYGREELEY CAMPAIGN BACKGROUND

If you've been a long-time resident of Greeley, you are no doubt aware of Greeley Unexpected, our prior six-year promotional campaign that challenged and positively shifted perceptions about our community. Greeley Unexpected was an incredible initiative that changed the way people thought about this community and elevated awareness and opinions. Through that initiative, we (the city) discovered a lot about who we are – and how each of us has our ideas and experiences that shape our perspective about what makes this community so amazing.

This individualized pride and enthusiasm are what brought us to the next generation image campaign – myGreeley. The realization that each of us has our reasons why we call this place home is exciting and certainly worth sharing. For some, it's the small-town vibe with big-city amenities. For others, it's the astonishing cultural diversity. And for still others, it's the near-limitless opportunities for personal and professional growth.

Whatever brought our residents here – and whatever keeps them here – there's no wrong answer. That's what myGreeley aims to highlight. The life of this campaign is generated by the people of Greeley (you, your friends, neighbors – anyone) – sharing unique stories and moments that highlight all the great experiences and moments within reach in this community. Our Greeley. Your Greeley. My Greeley.

The mural will need to reflect the spirit of the MyGreeley campaign, highlighting the community experiences and cultural diversity within Greeley. This campaign is all about engagement, telling our story, and strengthening our sense of pride for our community. The City of Greeley is committed to providing unique and accessible community opportunities for residents and visitors so they may find their unique adventures and meaningful experiences in Greeley. The mural project, located at the heart of the downtown commercial area, is intended to inspire residents and visitors to share their stories and experiences, celebrate Greeley community, and add creative vibrancy to enhance the pedestrian experience. The MyGreeley campaign would like to transform the downtown pavers into a vibrant work of art that mirrors the local culture and community in Greeley. The MyGreeley campaign is vibrant and colorful just as our community is. See attached .pdf for the brand style sheet. One of the goals of the campaign is to collect and share our community stories emphasizing the amazing things about Greeley whether it is through education, innovation, creativity, activities, culture, a sense of connections, etc.
